

MASTERCLASS BY UDI OREN

FROM THE INNER CONFLICT (IC) TO THE INTERNAL DIALOGUE (ID) THANKS TO EMDR THERAPY ...

COURSE OBJECTIVES

In this workshop, Udi Oren, in the perspective of EMDR, works with people facing internal conflicts when making personal choices. This type of conflict has appeared in many therapies and manifests itself as «parts», «voices» or «states of the self» of the patient. Often, the conversation between these different parts is either non-existent or suffers from a great limitation. Sometimes one of the parts is not interested or does not want any communication with the other part.

This workshop aims to teach participants an understanding of the phenomenon from the perspective of the adaptive information process model.

With a specific protocol, Udi Oren teaches a way to facilitate the work that leads the patient from the inner conflict towards the inner dialogue and its integration.

Attending this workshop you will be able to understand the inner conflict, from an AIP perspective, and use a specific EMDR strategy to change the inner conflict into an internal dialogue.
